GUIDELINES

PURPOSE

Lewis County Search and Rescue Volunteers use their unique skills and tools to assist in searching for lost or rescue of injured persons. They help the community during natural disasters and educate the public on wilderness safety.

POLICY

Search and Rescue Volunteers provide valuable and necessary additional services to the Lewis County Sheriff's Office on a daily basis. In order to maximize the productivity of this program, the following procedures and regulations are established.

ELIGIBILITY

Search and Rescue Volunteers must pass a background check and have established a consistent pattern of responsible citizenship and use of good judgment as evidence by the absence of any of the following in your background.

- Convictions for an offense that is a felony in Washington State.
- Convictions for a gross misdemeanor offense in the past (7) years.
- Convictions for a misdemeanor offense in the past five (5) years.
- Convictions for any domestic violence offense.
- Convictions for any charge/offense that shows aggression toward or disrespect for law enforcement officers.
- Indicators that your integrity, honesty, character or work habits would be incompatible with the ethical standards and values of the Lewis County Sheriff's Office.

APPLICATION/STEPS TO BECOMING A SEARCH AND RESCUE VOLUNTEER

- Complete and sign the volunteer application and waiver form, mail or submit in person to the Lewis County Sheriff's Office.
- Successfully pass a criminal history and driver's license check AFTER Unit Leader approval.
- Understand and agree to the terms and conditions of volunteering for LCSO.
- After completing the application, it will then be forwarded to the Unit Leader. The Unit Leader will contact the applicant with the dates and times of meetings for the volunteer unit the applicant is interested in.

Search and Rescue Volunteer Program

The Lewis County Sheriff's Office Search and Rescue Volunteers are invaluable to the Sheriff's Office. They contribute to the ability of the commissioned officers to perform the duties of their positions and provide a service that contributes to the quality of life in our community. They help make Lewis County a great place to live, work and raise our families by supporting the Mission and Code of Ethics of the Lewis County Sheriff's Office.

Minimum Requirements for Lewis County Sheriff's Office Search and Rescue Volunteers:

- SAR Volunteers must be able to successfully complete a background check, which includes a criminal history check, after Unit Leader approval.
- SAR Volunteers must support the Lewis County Sheriff's Office and comply with confidentiality requirements and agency policies and procedures.
- SAR Volunteers must attend meetings appropriate to their interest. Dates and times will be provided by the Unit Leader after contact with the applicant.
- Members must maintain at least the minimum WAC 118-04-120 training classes and remain active and available for call-out status.
- The minimum age is 16. (Juveniles between the ages of 14 and 16 may join if they have a parent or guardian volunteering in the program).
- Must possess a valid driver's license and insurance if operating a motor vehicle.

SEARCH AND RESCUE UNITS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

Cascade Dogs – Specialized unit with trained tracking dogs used in Search and Rescue.

Lewis County Sheriff's Mounted Posse – Specialized unit made up of horse mounted search teams.

Lewis County ATV – Specialized unit where members have their own all-terrain vehicles.

Lewis County Dive Team – Provides certified rescue divers as well as swift water trained personnel.

Mossyrock Search and Rescue – Provides ground teams for urban and wilderness search and rescue. They also have teams who are qualified with snowmobiles for winter conditions.
